KNIFESTYLES OF THE RICH & FAMOUS

CHEEKS
Khloé appears to have "big-time" injections of fillers — or her own body fat — to sculpt her cheeks, says Philly plastic surgeon Dr. Lyle Back. Cost? $3K to $5K.

NOSE
Her slimmer, more refined nasal bridge indicates "a major rhinoplasty," observes Dr. Back. A skilled Beverly Hills nose job runs upwards of $12,500.

LIPS
"Her lips are now much fuller and more pouty," adds Houston plastic surgeon Dr. Mirwat Sami. "In my opinion, they're now too plump!" Dermal fillers cost $600 and up — every six months.

CHEST
"It appears breast augmentation [up to $15,000] took Khloé from a B-cup to a D-cup," notes Dr. Back. "For her height and frame, it's not an overwhelming size."

Khloé, Is That You?

While the rest of the world is focused on her former stepfather's transition from a man to a woman, Khloé Kardashian is making her own changes. And she's almost unrecognizable. Beyond swapping her Brunette mane for blond locks, the 30-year-old has traded her soft, unique features for Hollywood stereotypes — including plumped-to-the-hilt lips, inflated cheeks, a chiseled nose and balloon boobs. A family fondness for plastic surgery is at play, say experts, not just Khloé's beloved makeup contouring. "She's taken a very aggressive approach," observes Philadelphia plastic surgeon Dr. Lyle Back, who does not treat the reality star, "with fat injections to the lips and cheeks and a total nasal overhaul. Khloé's essentially been stripped of her facial identity." But it's her trout pout that Houston's Dr. Mirwat Sami, who also does not call Khloé a patient, really zeros in on: "Her lips are too plump, making them look artificial and overdone. This is a case where less would have been more — just a little more fullness and definition rather than this excessive amount." Still, there's no doubt gorgeous Khloé — who's denied any surgery in the past — is turning heads more than ever. Too bad she just doesn't look like Khloé anymore. LS

BEFORE OR AFTER CHIN IMPLANT?

Stassi Schroeder

Some grads get a watch. Others, like the Vanderpump Rules star, go under the knife! The ex-SUR restaurant staffer says her parents marked her high school commencement by presenting her with a "chin implant," a jaw implant surgery that runs upwards of $4,000. Was it a gift that keeps on giving? Guys we polled voted yes, noting 26-year-old Stassi's stronger, more sculpted jawline seriously ups her hot factor.
