KNIFESTYLES OF THE RICH & FAMOUS

2012

FOREHEAD

"It looks like she's had Botox injections [up to $2,000 a year] around her eyebrows," notes Philadelphia plastic surgeon Dr. Lyle M. Back, who also suspects Iggy may have had a "brow lift" and her "eyes done."

NOSE

"That's a major nose job!" pronounces Dr. Back. Houston's Dr. Mirwat Sami agrees that Iggy's had "nose reconstruction surgery or cosmetic rhinoplasty." Price? $12,500.

CHIN

In addition to plumping up her midface and upper lip, says Dr. Sami, "Iggy now has a more prominent chin, which could be from either an implant [$7,000] or fillers [$4,000]."

BUST

"Prior to implants, Iggy was reportedly a size 32B," notes Dr. Back. "She now appears to be a D- to DD-cup, which is more proportionate to her 5-foot-10 frame." Cost: $15,000.

BEFORE OR AFTER BOOB JOB?

Jenelle Evans

Since getting breast implants in 2012, the Teen Mom 2 star loves strutting her stuff in teeny bikinis, saying that going from a B-cup to a C made her feel "more confident in my looks." But the 23-year-old single mom to sons Jace, 5, and Kaiser, 1, was also candid about the pain of recovery. "My boobs are hurting so bad, I can't stop crying," she tweeted post-surgery. Were the star's bigger, um, girls worth the suffering? In our poll, most guys gave her props — which we assume was the goal!

Who dat, who dat? The lyrics of Iggy Azalea's hit "Fancy" are taking on new meaning as I-G-G-Y continues to look less and less like her former "I'm-the-realest" self. Though the rapper recently confirmed she "got bigger boobs," she's remained suspiciously mum about the nose job and chin implant rumors that began after her appearance at the Billboard Music Awards in May. And the newly engaged 25-year-old appears to have a fondness for Botox and dermal-filler injections, as well. "Iggy is still quite attractive, but now she looks like someone else," observes Philadelphia plastic surgeon Dr. Lyle M. Back, who does not treat the star. "I see Christina Applegate crossed with Kaley Cuoco-Sweeting crossed with Keanu Reeves. Someone nipped and tucked it right out of the ballpark!" Houston oculoplastic surgeon Dr. Mirwat Sami is also struck by the extreme changes in Iggy's looks. "Overall, her cosmetic procedures appear to be tastefully performed," notes Dr. Sami, who also doesn't treat her. "The change in the appearance of her chin, and especially her nose, has altered her face noticeably. Her face is now more heart-shaped, which is considered very pleasing." Pretty girl! L&S

MIRACLE IN A JAR

FOAM AWAY FINE LINES!

This new aerated moisturizer is a bit like a velvet fist: It goes on soft, like whipped cream — but packs a punch of marine-extracted elements for powerful plumping and hydration.

Bonus: It doubles as a really elegant shaving cream!
